PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To issue a warrant

☐ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or Probation Officer.'

On June 6, 2005, the undersigned officer conducted a home visit at the offender's residence located at 354A Whiton Street in Jersey City, New Jersey. The undersigned officer was informed by a relative, Pedro Ramirez, that the offender relocated to the Dominican Republic approximately two weeks prior.

- 2 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.'

On May 17, 2005, the offender failed to report to the probation office as directed by the undersigned officer. Subsequent to that date, the offender has failed to report or re-establish contact with the probation office.

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change of residence or employment.'

Sometime in May 2005, the offender relocated to an unknown address. According to a relative, Pedro Ramirez, Rivera moved to the Dominican Republic. The offender never notified the probation office of any change in residence and his present whereabouts are unknown.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
